The NRVC is headed to the Pacific Northwest in 2020!

Learn more about us . . .

- NRVC is a 31-year old USCCB recognized professional organization for religious vocation directors, whose primary goal is to help women and men discern a religious vocation, assess candidates interested in becoming Catholic sisters, brothers, and priests, and welcome new members to religious life
- NRVC has over 1,000 members representing 350+ Religious Institutes and Organizations
- NRVC offers exceptional programming, training, and resources for professional, spiritual and personal growth which positively impact the future of religious life
- NRVC educates, connects, and inspires all those interested in the future of religious life, including thousands of young Catholics exploring religious vocations each year
- NRVC publishes award-winning resources, including VISION Vocation Guide, VocationNetwork.org, VocationMatch.com, and HORIZON Journal
- NRVC needs your help to successfully create a culture of encounter, accompaniment, and vocations and showcase the vitality of religious life

What is Convocation?

- A Convocation is the action of calling people together for a large formal assembly
- The NRVC hosts their Convocation of members on a biennial basis
- 2020 will be the first time we are in the Pacific Northwest. Please help us make members feel at home!
- Here are firsthand accounts of the Convocation experience:

- This is a gathering of the Best and Brightest. You can feel the spirit as we all give witness and affirmation to consecrated life and our mission. Each of us comes with purposeful intent; to grow and learn.
- There is energy all around. Joyful witness, a sharing, interaction, true happiness, a friendly approach, a welcoming smile and acceptance of all.
- Communion is at the heart of it.

Discernment, then, is not a solipsistic self-analysis or a form of egotistical introspection, but an authentic process of leaving ourselves behind in order to approach the mystery of God, who helps us to carry out the mission to which he has called us, for the good of our brothers and sisters.

(Gaudete et Exsultate, 175)
